

VIEUX CHÂTEAU BAYARD

CUVÉE TRADITION

Our most distinguished Montagne, the most limestone and most classical appellation. A Merlot and Cabernet assembly tamed for a soft raising.

TASTING NOTES

Purple with some violin highlights, fruity and delicate in the nose. Ample in mouth, round with a beautiful tannic structure. A tasty wine with tannins already melted, ending by a balanced freshness. Ideal with white meat and soft cheese.

APPELLATION

Montagne Saint-Émilion

GRAPE VARIETAL

Merlot (75%), Cabernet Sauvignon (25%)

PLANTING DENSITY

5 000 feet / hectares

PRODUCTION

About 39 000 bottles

AGING

50% barrel from 1 wine, 50% concrete tank

www.vieuxchateaubayard.fr

SCEA Vieux Bayard - 13 Bayard, 33570 Montagne, FRANCE - All rights reserved - Graphic design idealcomm.fr